

BY THE
Lords-Justices of IRELAND
AND
A PROCLAMATION.

CYRILL WICH, W. DUNCOMBE.

WHEREAS several evil disposed Persons unknown and disguised, did on Monday the 17th of September last, about Midnight, Burglariously break and enter the College of Youghall, and thence feloniously took Five Hundred Pounds of the proper Money of the Earl of Cork, who hath deposited Fifty Pounds in the hands of Richard Smith of Dublin, Gent. for the Reward of such Person or Persons as shall discover the said Felons, or either of them, so as the said Money may be recovered, or that the said Offenders may be brought to Condign Punishment. We have thought fit further to encourage the said Discovery by Publishing and Declaring hereby that over and above the aforesaid Fifty Pounds, the Person or Persons effectually discovering the said Felony, so that one or more of the said Robbers may be brought to Justice, shall have Their Majesties Pardon for that and all other Felonies and other Crimes by him or them heretofore Committed, Murder only excepted.

Given at the Council-Chamber in Dublin, the 19th. Day of October. 1694.
